

Do you have a passion for helping individuals with developmental disabilities? Are you looking for a rewarding career with a company that has a dynamic work culture? If the answer is yes, the Recreational Therapist position at Meaningful Day Services could be job the you are looking for.

Meaningful Day Services has proudly been serving individuals with developmental disabilities since 1994.

We are currently seeking a Recreational Therapist that will effectively work within our company culture, which is described as being family-friendly, supportive, transparent, and treats employees as we would want employees to treat our clients.

We are seeking therapists that are good advocates for their clients, solution-oriented, honest and passionate. Meaningful Day Services provides an opportunity for our employees to gain experience in a high energy, caring, supportive, technology-enhanced work environment, while making a difference in the lives of others.

Our Philosophy:

- Providing quality, hands-on services that enhance and improve the independence of each unique individual.
- Maintaining a work culture that thrives on collaboration, team-work, flexibility, and caring for our clients, our co-workers, and our community.
- Investing in our employees through effective supervision, training, and learning opportunities.

Our therapists conduct standardized assessments for each consumer, attend interdisciplinary team meetings, develop and implement treatment plans and interventions based on assessed need, educate families and caregivers on TR processes and techniques, and document measurable client progress on a quarterly basis. Consumers are typically seen 1x/week for 1-2 hour sessions and services are based on state allocation within the consumer's plan.
