

BRADFORD WOODS

BE PART OF AN EXPERIENCE THAT WILL CHANGE THE LIVES OF YOU AND YOUR CAMPER'S FOREVER

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

FULFILLING the PROMISE

IU is a EOE/AA/M/F/Vet/Disability

POSITIONS

- Recreation Therapy Interns
- Cabin Heads
- Music Instructor
- Adventure Challenge Instructors
- Nature Instructor
- Lifeguards
- Creative Arts Instructor
- Evening Program Coordinators
- Cabin Counselors
- Recreation Instructor
- Media Specialist
- Waterfront Director
- Program Utility Coordinator

Find out more about employment and internships for Bradford Woods' therapeutic summer camps
by visiting www.bradwoods.org

Outdoor Education

JOB/Internships

Spring March-May and Fall August-November

Professional Outdoor Instructors

Teach Environmental Education

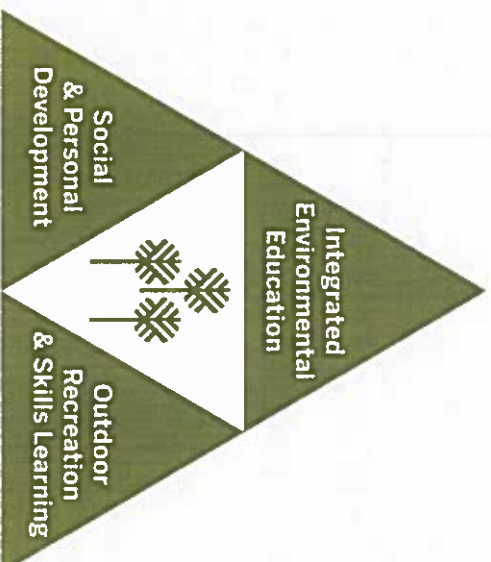

Outdoor Classroom, choose your site

Trail group / Non-rotation programs

Some challenge course programming

Maple Syrup Camp in Spring

Ages are mostly 5th grade, but up to adults

Summer May-August

Professional Outdoor Instructors

Waterfront and Pool activities: swimming, canoeing, and raft-building

Summer camp counseling for two weeks

Retreats recreational programs

Rec. Therapy Camp program support

Adventure challenge / adapted climbing

Ages are youth through adults

Facilitating teambuilding and climbing

Both Day and Residential Programs

For more information, please contact:

Melanie Wills

765-342-2915 or mjwills@indiana.edu

www.bradwoods.org

Why Bradford Woods?

Cultural History

Accessible for all

2,500 acre property

University Affiliation

60 year program history

Internationally recognized

Curriculum-based programs

INDIANA UNIVERSITY